

The effort to block satellite radio from carrying traffic and weather is downright silly. Local broadcasters should realize that those of us who travel the nation's highways just cannot receive their stations because of the terrain and their lousy signals.
Do not restrict this type of coverage!